AT THE ARTS UNITED CENTER

THE PRODUCERS

*Saturday, July 25 - Sunday, August 9, 2009

First a classic cult comedy film, now a big Broadway musical! With a truly hysterical book co-written by Mel Brooks and Thomas Meehan (Annie) and music and lyrics by Mr. Brooks, The Producers skewers Broadway traditions and takes no prisoners as it proudly proclaims itself an "equal opportunity offender!" (R)

THE PIANO LESSON

*Saturday, September 12 - Sunday, September 20, 2009

August Wilson won his second Pulitzer Prize for this haunting drama set in 1936. A brother and sister have conflicted opinions over selling the antique piano embellished with carvings detailing the family's rise from slavery. (PG13)

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

*Saturday, November 7 - Sunday, November 22, 2009

Tradition! Rich in historical and ethnic detail, Fiddler On The Roof has touched audiences around the world with its humor, warmth and honesty. Its universal theme of tradition cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion, leaving audiences crying tears of laughter, joy and sadness. (G)

JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT

Friday, March 5 - Sunday, March 21, 2010

The Biblical saga of Joseph and his coat of many colors comes to vibrant life in this delightful musical parable. Set to an engaging cornucopia of musical styles, from country-western and calypso to bubble-gum pop and rock 'n' roll, this Old Testament tale emerges both timely and timeless! (G)

WORKING

Friday, May 7 - Sunday, May 16, 2010

The hopes, dreams, joys and concerns of the average working American are the focus of this unique, extraordinary musical. Based on Studs Terkel's best-selling book of interviews with American workers, Working paints a vivid portrait of the men and women the world so often takes for granted. (PG)

*Note: new Saturday opening night!

QUILT - A Musical Celebration

Friday, October 2 - Sunday, October 18, 2009

Few who have seen the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt can ever forget the experience or the powerful emotions evoked by this patchwork of panels. This is a unique and affecting musical work dealing with a timely, contemporary subject. A portion of all royalties will be donated to various AIDS organizations. (PG)

THE ROAD TO MECCA

Friday, April 2 - Sunday, April 18, 2010

This unusual drama focuses on Miss Helen who lives alone in South Africa where she creates odd concrete sculptures which she calls her "Mecca". A penetrating study of the role of the artist in any society, this important play was the winner of the New York Drama Critics Circle award for Best Foreign Play. (PG)
