NOTES FROM THE EXECUTIVE/ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Welcome to the Fort Wayne Civic Theatre!

The Fort Wayne Civic Theatre is extremely honored to be collaborating with the Fort Wayne Parks & Recreation Department in bringing Legally Blonde to the Foellinger Outdoor Theatre. During this period of the coronavirus we were forced to think out-of-the-box on how to move forward, how to proceed in the safest way possible for all. The Foellinger Outdoor Theatre has given us this path to create and engage our audiences once again after having to cancel the last two shows of the 2019-2020 Season: A Cole Porter Celebration Concert and Noises Off. We are extremely disappointed for our actors, singers, production team, volunteers, and patrons that we could not produce these two shows.

Phillip H. Colglazier

In addition, FW Parks & Recreation Department has agreed to host the Civic Theatre's all-female musical production of 1776 at the Foellinger Outdoor Theatre as well. The open-air venue provides fresh air and plenty of space to accommodate social distancing seating. The capacity of the Foellinger Outdoor Theatre is normally 2,571, but with social distancing seating only 498. That is if Governor Holcomb moves to stage 5 of his reopening Indiana plan. If not, we will only be selling up to 250 seats. Whereas, the Civic Theatre's home stage at the Arts United Center's capacity is 630, but with social distancing seating only 160.

The point is that we are mission driven as a 501c3 non-profit arts organization. Since 1927, we have had a proud history of our vision, mission and values that drives our organization.

Our Mission - Fort Wayne Civic Theatre entertains, educates, inspires, and enriches the community through exceptional live theatre experiences.

We are being proactive in resetting the venues and dates so that we will still provide you all the shows in our 2020-2021 Season. The dates and venues may change, but not the shows. YOU will be kept in the loop as soon as we know! Thank you for your loyal patronage to the Fort Wayne Civic Theatre!

Now, on behalf of the Fort Wayne Civic Theatre entire staff and board of directors, we are so thrilled to be showcasing the incredible talents of the cast and crew in the empowering musical Legally Blonde. We are honored to have Beth Turcotte make her Civic Theatre directorial debut with us this summer! We welcome her to Fort Wayne and to our theatre community! Thank you, Beth!

2020-2021 Civic Theatre Season

1776 the Musical, all-female cast: September 12-20 at the Foellinger Outdoor Theatre

Annie: November 2020

Sunset Boulevard-the Musical: February 2021

The Mousetrap: March 2021

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum: May 2021

We know that due to social distancing seating our box office income, which is 30% of our operating budget, will take a 50% to 70% loss. Now more than ever we hope you will consider making a tax-deductible contribution to Fort Wayne Civic Theatre's general operating funds.

On behalf of the Civic Theatre staff and board of directors, we applaud you for joining us in the reopening for the Fort Wayne Civic Theatre! Thank you!

Phillip H. Colglazier, Executive/Artistic Director

We believe in supporting the arts.
Every step of the way.

Fort Wayne Civic Theatre Staff

Phillip H. Colglazier, Executive/Artistic Director

Phillip has served as the Civic Theatre's Executive/Artistic Director since 2000 after serving as Managing Director of Edyvane Repertory Theatre (E.R.T.) in Indianapolis. Before E.R.T. he worked for Fort Wayne Civic Theatre 6 years as Interim Executive Director, Development/Education Director, and Guest Director/Choreographer. He was honored as the 2008 Arts Administrator by the Indiana Coalition for the Arts. Phillip performed 12 years professionally as an Actors Equity Member in musical theatre and television in Seoul, Korea, Vienna, Rome and throughout the U.S. He obtained his Bachelors in Speech Communication and Theatre from Ball State.

Eunice Wadewitz, Music/Education Director

Eunice has spent her whole career in one form of music or another. She began teaching piano, playing organ for church, and playing piano 5 hours a day for tea time at the L'Orangerie Lounge in the Downtown Hilton. She then moved on to become choir and handbell choir director as well as organist for several churches before moving into the realm of theater. Once she tried theater, there was no going back, and the Civic Theatre has happily been her home for the last 20+ years.

Mahlon Houlihan, Business Manager

Mahlon joined the Civic staff in October of 2006 after serving as Business Manager for the Embassy Theatre Foundation for five years. He formerly worked as an independent computer consultant specializing in custom software development and system design with a concentration in business and financial applications. He brings a strong background and a degree in Computer Technology to the position along with previous finance experience in the non-profit sector. Mahlon owns and fosters retired Greyhounds and is proud "dad" to five at the moment.

Elise Ramel, Marketing Director

Elise has worked in marketing and public relations for over 30 years. She began her career at The Asher Agency, a full-service advertising and PR firm in Fort Wayne. She has worked on staff and as a consultant for many area non-profit organizations and private sector companies. Elise received a Bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University. Her hobby is seeing as many Broadway and off-Broadway shows as possible with her daughter each year. She loves living in Fort Wayne and being a part of this amazing theatre community.

Kathy Whiteman, Development Director

If Kathy looks familiar you may have seen her on our stage, most recently appearing in Beauty and the Beast, White Christmas and Mamma Mia! A native of Fort Wayne, Kathy is the proud mom of three children and is heavily involved in the Down Syndrome Association of Northeast Indiana (DSANI) where she serves as the MOMS Chair. Kathy owns a top ranked face painting business and can often be found creating art at the annual 3 Rivers Festival Chalk Walk. Kathy joined the Civic staff in September of 2019 and is thrilled that her Development career began with an organization she is so passionate about.

Corey Lee, Technical Director/Lighting Designer

Corey is proud to be starting his fifth season at the Civic. He is a graduate of IPFW, where he received a degree in both Theatre and Secondary Education. Corey started working backstage in middle school. While working on Jekyll and Hyde at Northrop High School in 2005, he fell in love with the show and theatre. Corey has designed and worked with IPFW, Mikautadze Dance Theatre, Youtheatre, University of St Francis, Fort Wayne Summer Music Theatre, and First Presbyterian Theatre. Corey would like to thank his family for all of their support. www.coreylee.com

Adam Fletcher, Scenic Designer

A native of nearby North Manchester, Adam first became involved in theatre as local crew for the Honeywell Center in Wabash, and as a carpenter for the Muncie Civic Theatre. After earning a BA in Theatre from IPFW in 2013, he has since served the area's theatre community as master carpenter for the Fort Wayne Civic, where he began interning in 2011, and as scenic designer for Fort Wayne Youtheatre, Canterbury Schools, and Wabash Area Community Theatre. This is Adam's fifth season as Scenic Designer for Civic.

Angela Sahli, Costume Designer

Angela has been a part of live theatre since she was young, experiencing collaboration both on-stage and behind the scenes. After finishing her BA in Musical Theatre from Northern State University, she pursued her interest in costume design. She earned a Master of Fine Arts in costume design at Minnesota State University, Mankato - developing her passion and skills in the craft. Locally, Angela has designed set and costumes for Arena Dinner Theatre and worked as a Guest Artist at Weisser Park Elementary. She was honored to be recognized as the 2020 Arts United Emerging Artist. She is enjoying parenthood with her husband Adam. www.AngelaSahliCostumes.com

Legally Blonde, The Musical, centers on Elle Woods, a young, caring, loving and effervescent young college student. Her story unfolds when her heart and a chunk of her self-worth is crushed by her college sweetheart, Warner. Expecting a marriage proposal, Warner tells Elle that he is breaking up with her and has been accepted into Harvard's Law School. Down but not out, Elle, with the support and guidance of her Delta Nu sorority sisters, is accepted into Harvard Law School. GO ELLE! As her life, love and law adventures continue, Elle suffers the "slings and arrows" of disappointment and self-doubt. Ever resilient, Elle conquers law school and along the way she discovers new friends, true love and most importantly, herself. YAY ELLE!

And now for theatre in the time of COVID-19. The last time I wore a mask on stage was in a commedia dell'arte class and performance in graduate school. However, the rehearsal masks for our show were not worn to inspire humor but, unfortunately, to avoid illness. These remarkable community artists, designers and crew were up to the COVID-19 challenge and created a joyful, though sometimes challenged, safe rehearsal process for all involved.

On behalf of the creative team and artists, we hope you enjoy Fort Wayne's Civic Theatre production of Legally Blonde, The Musical!

BETH TURCOTTE (Director) has been a dedicated theatre artist and educator devoted to the development of new work and emerging talent for the past thirty eight years. She earned accolades in both professional and educational arenas for her visionary project and passion for arts education. Her immersive learning undertaking, The Circus in Winter, an original musical inspired by the novel by Cathy Day, was a culmination of a classroom project by 15 undergraduate students. The piece was selected to participate in the American College Theatre Festival at the Kennedy Center and was honored with eleven awards including Outstanding New Work and Director. Circus, after competing in a national competition, was selected to perform in New York City's National Alliance of Musical Theatre's Festival featuring Sutton Foster. The production continued to develop and was invited to perform at Goodspeed Opera House-Norma Terrace Theatre.

Beth received several awards for her acting and directing and most importantly, for her dedication to arts education and the creative process. In her community work, she created the Cornerstone Center for the Arts, an inner-city arts institution discovering young unheard and underserved voices. Beth has traveled, taught and performed throughout Asia, delivering American musical theatre to new audiences. Beth recently retired from Ball State University after 37 years of teaching as the George and Frances Ball Distinguished Professor of Theatre, Emeriti, and she received her MFA from Southern Methodist University.

IN THE WINGS ARTS-IN-EDUCATION

Acting for the stage is an all-encompassing process that involves a great deal of collaboration from many different people. The art, process and effects of live performance are incredibly important in the current world of social media, digital technology and screens. Being fully present with a group of tangible, living, breathing people is important to the art of acting and for the human spirit.

1) Theatre helps us to see a different perspective from our own. We're shown humanity, psychology, motivation, conflict and resolution. Theatre encourages us to give power to truth, to take risks, and to advocate for new and diverse voices.

2) Theatre reminds us that we are not alone. Not only are we sharing space and an experience with the artists who are performing, we are sharing the experience with fellow audience members. Movies and television don't have the same intimacy or sense of participation. Sharing an experience with live actors and live audience members is not only valuable, it's necessary for human connection.

3) Theatre is immediate, evolving and always different. Although the script may be the same every night, the performance is unique each and every time it happens. No two performances are ever the same. In this way, everyone involved has a distinct and unique experience that can never be replicated.

4) Live theatre helps to promote social discourse, dialogue, and potential social change. Theatre is a cultural phenomenon that demands that society examines itself in the mirror. We can study societal problems and attempt to find solutions. Coming together as a community to listen to opposing points of view is necessary.

5) Theatre promotes education and literacy. Studies have shown that students who participate in theatre do better in school.

TALA MUNSTERMAN (Stage Manager) is the stage manager of this production of Legally Blonde. She has been working with the Civic on nearly every production for almost four seasons. When she's not working in a theatre, Tala can be found raising wild copybaras in her backyard. She frequently vacations to the Swiss Alps, where she teaches local schoolchildren how to line dance. She dreams of one day manning the first solo mission to Jupiter. Apparently, it's just a big, concentrated ball of gas, but that won't stop the likes of Tala Munsterman!

In celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment we proudly present the musical 1776 featuring an all-female cast.

The 19th amendment guarantees all American women the right to vote.

It's the summer of 1776, and the nation is ready to declare independence... if only our founding fathers can agree to do it!

1776 follows John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson as they attempt to convince the members of the Second Continental Congress to vote for independence from the shackles of the British monarchy by signing the Declaration of Independence. The revolutionary event in American history blazes to vivid life in this most unconventional of Broadway hits. 1776 puts a human face on the pages of history as we see the men behind the national icons: proud, frightened, uncertain, irritable, charming, often petty and ultimately noble figures.
