

Fort Wayne Civic Theatre Interns

Lex Wright, College Intern

Lex Wright is a native of Wabash, IN and recently graduated from Huntington University in December with a degree in Theatre Technology. Lex is excited to get a start in the Fort Wayne theatre world with the Civic Theatre! Lex's eventual goal is to be a Technical Director of a theatre company, maybe even one of their own! They are very thankful to be able to have this opportunity that could open so many doors in the future!

Khit Ramarn,
High School Intern

Khit Ramarn is a Senior at Northrop High School and Amp Lab at Electric Works. He is excited to work and intern with Fort Wayne Civic Theatre this semester because of the new experience of designing and building sets which will support his career path, expand his horizons, and enable personal growth. Khit is on the track team at Northrop, is Vice Secretary of the Mon Youth Organization, and participates in the dual credit program through Purdue Fort Wayne.

Xander Williams,
High School Intern

Xander Williams is a Senior at Fort Wayne Community Schools Virtual Academy and a second-year student at Amp Lab at Electric Works. He has a passion for carpentry and is especially proud of the hut he designed and built last semester for Blue Jacket's Fantasy of Lights. Xander is very excited for this opportunity with Fort Wayne Civic Theatre to deepen and refine his carpentry skills for his future career as a Master Carpenter.
